1 Q. So Mr. Howe has never discussed Mr. Perez's
2 performance with you?

3 A. Not with me.

4 MR. ANGLADE: I think I'm at a point where
5 I'm finished. All I ask is after you finish your 6 questioning if I could review my notes if I have
7 additional questions.

8 MS. DiBIANCA: Let's take a minute break.

9 MR. ANGLADE: Okay.

10 (A brief recess was taken.)

11 MS. DiBIANCA: I have no questions.

12 MR. ANGLADE: I have no other questions.

13 MS. DiBIANCA: We are going to read.

1 Q. Just very quickly, I want to go back to your
2 interview with Pete Howe. Did Howe tell you that he was
3 looking to hire recent college graduates?

4 A. He told me he was looking to hire a recent
5 college graduate for this year. His wording was this:
6 He wanted to hire a college graduate for this year, and
7 he told me so because they hadn't hired a college
8 graduate in a couple of years.

9 And if you look at the department, you see
10 why. You see that's true, that they probably haven't
11 hired a college graduate in a couple of years. If you
12 look at Guttridge 2 you can see that, that they wouldn't
13 have hired a college graduate in a couple of years.

14 Q. Is it your opinion after you were hired that BE&K
15 has hired more people who were recent college graduates
16 as opposed to people who had more experience?

17 A. Honestly, I would say it is -- you are almost at 18 a 50-50 mix, half and half.

19 MR. ANGLADE: I have no further questions.

20 MS. DIBIANCA: We are going to read.

an age bias or that there was not an age bias?

MR. ANGLADE: I object to the form to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion.

You can answer.

A. The fact that the majority of this department is above forty indicates that there's no age bias.

MS. DiBIANCA: Okay. That's all.
